To whom it may concern:

While Interglobal Migration Services( www.imsmigration.com.au ) plays a vital role in the procurement of permanent residency, it is the details within the whole process which makes a world of difference. To this effect, Mr Tony Latessa, in partnership with IMS, has been invaluable for his services and abilities. A very highly dependable gentleman, Mr Latessa helps sort out the nitty gritty of housing and investment for the new migrants to Australia. The daunting passage to a different country and environment thus runs smoothly due to Mr Latessa's professionalism in the way he keeps constantly in contact, provides updates and responds to queries.

If you seek honesty, reliability and dedication as part of your initial foray into Australia, then it is without hesitation that I recommend Mr Latessa's services to you.
